

Significant Sig Award Instructions

Congratulations!

You have been recognized as a Significant Sig from Sigma Chi International Fraternity. This is a distinct honor, and you are joining an illustrious group of men that includes individuals such as Harvard Business School professor and former Medtronic CEO Bill George, GEORGIA TECH 1964, country music artist Luke Bryan, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 1999, Uber Technologies CEO Dara Khosrowshahi, BROWN 1991, and others. This award represents high achievement and success throughout your professional career, bringing great esteem to you and the Fraternity. Congratulations on this great honor!

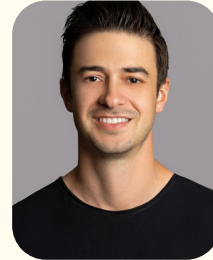

What's next?

Now that you have been named a Significant Sig, please follow the steps on the following pages in order for the Fraternity to better recognize you.

1 Step 1: Uploading Your Headshot / Photo

Please submit a high-quality headshot of yourself at least 5"x7" with a resolution of 300 DPI at least 1 MB in size. See examples below.

Click here to upload your headshot.

2 Step 2: Prepare for Filming Thank You Remarks

Steps 2-3 are optional for recipients who are not comfortable filming remarks, but it is strongly encouraged for proper recognition.

Please film a brief (2 minutes or less) video answering questions related to your award. Questions can be found in Step 3. This video may be used in fraternity communications, recognitions and related materials, placement in our archives, as well as in conjunction with the Grand Chapter recognition as part of a larger compilation video.

Please watch this instructional video on how to prepare for and film your remarks. This video includes details such as where to film and what to wear for your video.

Click here to watch the instructional video.

3 Step 3: Filming and Uploading Your Remarks

Please review and consider the following prompts when filming. You are not required to answer every question or prompt, they are offered simply as a guide.

- What does it mean to you to be named a Significant Sig?
- Briefly discuss how Sigma Chi has contributed to your professional development in your career.
- If you could offer one piece of advice to your Sigma Chi brothers, either in their personal or professional lives, what would it be?
- Who is one person who has had a memorable impact on you during your Sigma Chi journey?

Once you have completed your video, please upload it below.

Click here to upload your video.

4 Step 4: Receiving Your Award and Media Release

We kindly ask that all Significant Sig honorees complete the Awards Preferences and Media Release form, linked below. This form helps determine how your name will appear on your award.

Your responses on the form will help us make sure that the personal details on your materials are correct and to coordinate your receipt of them, as well as to grant the Fraternity permission to use your photo and video as part of a larger recognition at Grand Chapter and future communications from the organization.

Click here to complete Awards and Media Release form.

? General FAQs

If I'm attending Grand Chapter, what is the attire for the Significant Sig Award Ceremony?

- We encourage business professional attire. This includes a coat and tie or suit.

Should I make a video if I'm not attending Grand Chapter?

- While it is not required, it is strongly encouraged to submit video remarks even if you are not planning to attend in person.

Can I share the news with others?

- Yes! Once the Fraternity announces the newest inductees publicly, you are free to share the news with other people.

? Have additional questions? Reach out to our team!

Awards Questions

Barb Sara

Member Awards and Recognition Coordinator

E: barbara.sara@sigmachi.org

P: (847) 425-4443

Photo & Video Questions

David Jones, DEPAUW 2019

Associate Director of Digital Content and Engagement

E: david.jones@sigmachi.org

P: (847) 425-4480

Operations & General Questions

Dakota Neff, LOYOLA (CHICAGO) 2014

Senior Director of Operations and Human Resources

E: dakota.neff@sigmachi.org

P: (847) 425-4464

